General Comment

To Whom It May Concern-

I spend a lot of time educating myself on investments so I can make wise choices about how my money is handled. Please don't assume everyone 'needs to be protected' by the government nanny - we all make choices in life and should have to deal with the consequences, good and bad.

Please do not limit our investment choices such as options trading - I use options trading to actually REDUCE my risk in the marketplace by making wise and carefully-selected transactions.

Respectfully submitted,
Dwight David
